Access to Medical Reports Act 1988

Your rights under this Act – please read this carefully

a) You do not have to agree to a medical report

b) You can see the report before your doctor sends it to us, or during the six months after that.

c) You can ask the doctor to change any of the report if you think it is wrong or misleading. If the doctor does not agree, you can write your comments on a sheet of paper and attach them to the report.

d) If you ask your doctor for a copy of the report, you might have to pay for it. The doctor does not have to show you parts of the report which:

- Might damage your, or anyone else's physical or mental health.
- Would give away the doctors intentions for treating you; or
- Would tell you about someone who has given information about you. (This does not apply if that person agrees to you knowing or is a health worker looking after you).

The doctor must tell you if he or she has not shown you part of the report. If the whole of the report is affected, your doctor must not send it to us unless you agree.

If you tell us you want to see the reports before your doctor sends them to us, your doctor must show them to you first unless you fail to arrange to see them within 21 days.
